"Trifles Make Perfection,"

And perfection is no trifle. The little want ad may seem too small to you to be of any value in your business, but many a smart man and woman can tell you that an ad of a few lines run persistently for several months brings many dollars in profits and has the added value of costing only a small amount.

Any trifle which brings more dollars in profits than it takes dollars to buy is a step toward perfection in business--it may be a very long step.

'Phone for an ad solicitor and have a talk with him. Special rates for business men by the month and year.
